ANEX-4

Terms and conditions for supply of journals to Central Library, Indian Institute of Technology Delhi

1. Subscription

- a. The supplier on receipt of a firm purchase order, shall subscribe all the journals (Foreign and Indian) as per the enclosed list of journals (Annexure 1), offering rates of discount that has been agreed on behalf of the IIT Delhi within three weeks from the date of the order from their own funds and shall submit reimbursement bills/ invoices with the proof of remittance of subscription to the publishers, etc.
- b. The subscription must be entered in the name of the Institute in records of the respective publishers.
- c. For all the periodicals, the Supplier shall charge the Publishers' current subscription rates as indicated in the publishers' current catalogues or invoices. Wherever concessional rates are available/ applicable, the Supplier must charge accordingly. The publishers' invoices or their current price lists and relevant proof of remittance should support the bills submitted by the Supplier.
- d. If the Supplier fails to subscribe for any title(s) for what so ever reason within the stipulated period of 3 weeks the order stand automatically cancelled and Institute will be free to procure such title(s) from other sources at the risk and cost of supplier.
- e. Subscription period: All journals are to be renewed for the calendar year January to December or a complete volume as specified in the order. This includes all issues and supplementary volumes, if any published during the year.
- f. In the absence of satisfactory proof and regular follow-ups, the vendor/ supplier shall be responsible to replace the missing issues. Visits by the representative of the vendor/ supplier would be a condition so that there is a continuous interaction between the vendor and Central Library, IIT Delhi for monitoring of the supply position and services being rendered by the vendor/ supplier.
- g. The vendor will provide Customer No. as well as proactive help to IIT Delhi to enable access to electronic journals. Copy of the letter sent to publishers indicating our IP ranges , e-mail address and Institute's domain sent along with the payment should be submitted to the Librarian, Central Library, IIT Delhi, P.O. Hauz Khas, New Delhi-110016

2. Payment

- a. The firm will make payment from their own source on our behalf for the Journals ordered for supply with them. The payment should be remitted via Wire transfer/ Electronic processing wherever possible. Afterwards they will raise their bills along with the proof of Bank remittances for the amount paid along with the proof of Exchange rates prevailing on the date of remittance of the subscription amounts to the publishers concerned..
- b. The Foreign Journals available in dual currencies should be billed in the currency by which the converted cost is the lowest in Indian rupees.
- c. The Institute shall check the bills/invoices, relevant documents in support of remittance, bank conversion certificate etc and pass the invoices for payment of subscription at the earliest possible after submission of bills with all supporting documents.
- d. The foreign currencies shall be converted to Indian currency at the bank rate of exchange applicable on the date of issue of draft.
- e. The supplier shall submit acknowledgement from the publisher to the Institute within six weeks of payment.

3. Delivery of Journals

- a. The supplier shall procure all the journals subscribed by the Institute from the respective publishers by air freight arrangement at no additional cost to the institute and supply the same by hand delivery to the institute within six weeks of the date of publication of the issues.
- b. The supplier shall follow-up on those issues of journals which are delayed and /or not received from the publishers with in six weeks from the expected date of publication, with due intimations to the institute. The supplier shall also provide bimonthly status report on the supply position and also as and when required by the institute.

4. Missing issues

- a. The supplier shall monitor claims for missing issues of journals, if any and arrange to provide replacements within reasonable period.
- b. If the missing issues of the journals are not replaced by the publishers the supplier shall refund the proportionate cost of missing non-supplied issues plus penalty 5% minimum and 15% maximum depending the number of missing issues within six months from the date of publication, or for the period as decided by the Institute.

5. Delays in Supplier's Performance

- a. The journals must be supplied at the Central Library, IIT Delhi within a maximum period of six weeks from the dates of their publication. If, at any time during the period of contract / agreement, the supplier encounters conditions impeding timely delivery of the journals, the Supplier shall promptly notify the Institute in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the Supplier's notice, the Institute will evaluate the situation and may, at its discretion, extend the Supplier's time for supply of the delayed journals, or take any other appropriate action.
- b. The vendor/ agent shall have to accept full responsibility for the refund in full in cases where no issue or substantial number of issues of a journal is not supplied to the Library. The time can be extended only in cases where a confirmation is received from the publishers regarding receipt of payment and the supply is delayed either due to delay in release of issue or some other genuine reasons acceptable to us. Vendor would also be required to make proportionate refund for missing issues of journals subscribed through them.
- c. The vendor will be liable to refund the subscription amount along with an interest of 5%. Refund for missing issues would be prorated along with the interest on the basis of unit cost wherein a grace period of 60 days would be allowed from the due date of an issue.

6. Termination for default

- a. The Institute may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of the contract/agreement/supply order, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the contract/agreement in whole or part if the supplier fails to deliver or arrange to deliver the journal issues within four months from the dates of their publication, or within any extension thereof granted by the Institute. In such case(s) of termination, the Institute will not take any responsibility for the costs incurred by the supplier for the supply of the undelivered journals, which are covered under the termination and no payments will be made for recouping such costs.

- b. In the event, the Institute terminates the contract/agreement /supply order in whole or in part, the Institute may procure those undelivered journals through other Supplier(s) upon such terms and in such manner, as it deems appropriate. However, the Supplier shall continue to supply other journals ordered with it, which are not covered under the termination.

7. Online Activation

- a. The firm/Vendor has to inform the IIT Delhi Central Library, about the availability of free/ paid online access to the ordered foreign journals. A list of such journals has been identified by the Institute and enclosed as Annexure 1 and 2. The vendor would inform about any additional journals that becomes available during the subscription period.
- b. Free/ paid online access to journals where ever applicable with the print order has to be IP authenticated on the following range of IP address of Indian Institute of Technology Delhi
