2.0 OBJECTIVE

- a. To keep the entire system fully operational and functional at all times.
 b. In case full system cannot be kept functional for unavoidable reason, as much as possible, the installation shall be retained functional by isolating the defective section.

3.0 MAINTENANCE REQUIREMENT OF SYSTEM COMPONENTS

- a. For maintaining firefighting system following points are to be taken care of:-
 i. To ensure availability of water in UG tank and terrace tank all the time and to maintain the tanks in clean condition.

- ii. To ensure that the piping system is free from leakage. Any portion found to be leaking is to be isolated, rectified and connected with healthy system in shortest possible time.
- iii. To ensure that all pumps are in good running condition. Any pump found to be defective is to be isolated by closing valves and attended immediately and put in to service in minimum time. All pump glands shall be maintained in efficient working condition and the packing renewed as required to maintain the efficiency. All working parts shall be kept clean and lightly oiled. Any necessary repairs shall be put in hand and carried out immediately.
- iv. To ensure availability of power for electrical pumps, working of starters, switch gear and other electrical components.
- v. To ensure healthiness of diesel engine starting system, battery voltage, battery charger and availability of adequate diesel for engine operation.
- vi. To check all landing valves of internal and external hydrants, isolating valves and replace the defective ones whenever necessary.
- vii. To check automatic operation of entire system by opening landing valves at different locations.
- viii. To conduct fire drill at regular interval.

4.0 PERIODICAL TESTING

- a. For achieving the objectives of Para 2.0 and meeting the requirement of Para 3.0 periodical testing and checking the system is essential. Various activities and their duration have been tabulated in the following Table.

- a. Though the firefighting system operation is automatic, however for daily checking and attending to the system in case of operation, a trained pump operator shall be available round the clock.
- b. Operation and Maintenance instructions shall be available in the pump room and fire control room.
- c. Water for firefighting purpose is not to be used for any other purpose. However, in order to avoid stagnation, the same shall be changed / cleaned regularly.
- d. Maintaining Diesel Engine is very important for the system operation since during fire, power supply is deliberately or un-deliberately switched off. Proper running of DG set shall be ensured and any problem shall immediately be brought to the notice of the E-in-C. Adequate diesel should either be available in the pump house or nearby so that operation is not discontinued for want of diesel.
- e. Hydrant Mains / Ring Mains shall be tested once a fortnight with a pump delivering at its maximum pressure. A running test with two or more hose lines each 30 m long operating shall be carried out.
- f. If any out let is found to be defective and replacement is not easily available the whole assembly should be removed and be replaced by blank off plate so that the system remains operational.
- g. Hose reels shall be subjected to regular inspection to ensure that all valve are functional, out let nozzle not choked. At least once in a year the same shall be subjected to operation to ensure that hose reel is in good condition and that the coupling joints are water tight. Flow should also be checked for the leakage of hose reel.

- h. All hydrants shall be examined systematically once a week to ensure that valves and spring catches are maintained in good condition. Spare washers shall be kept for hydrant valve seats.
- i. Cut-off valves shall be thoroughly overhauled annually to remove sludge and other foreign matter collected in the valve seating.
- j. All isolating valves shall be checked for operation. The valves in closed position be opened and closed couple of times and the valves in open position be closed and opened couple of times so that when required, the valves perform their function.
- k. All hose boxes/hose stations shall be inspected externally once every week to ensure that the equipment installed therein is intact. Further, the hose boxes/hose stations shall be cleaned internally and externally once a month.

For systems having monitored wiring and up to 13 zones/loop, each zone/loop should be tested in turn but if there are more than 13 zones/loop, more than one zone/loop may need to be tested in any week so that the interval between tests on one zone /loop does not exceed 13 weeks. It is preferable that each time a particular zone is tested, a different trigger device is used. An entry should be made in the log book quoting the particular trigger device that has been used to initiate the test. SCHEDULE OF GENERAL EI MAINTENANCE

1. General Guidelines

- a. Safety procedures as per IE Rules should be duly followed.
 - b. The number of items to be maintained in a building may be many like fittings, fans, DBs, earth sets etc. In order to achieve compliance to the prescribed periodicities for the various activities on them as per this schedule, each of these items may be divided into convenient numbers, to carry out the respective activities in sub periods, in a cyclic (sequential) order. For example, if DB's are to be checked every month, and there are 50 DBs in a building, these may be checked at the rate of 2 or 3 DBs every day in a sequential order (programmed in advance) so that all DBs are checked in a month.
 - c. Maintenance activities carried out as per this schedule should be noted in the Maintenance Register. When tests are carried out, the test results should be recorded with appropriate identification references (For Example: SDB7; Earth pit No.4; R/M Wing A etc.)
 - d. The voltage of supply, total load current and PF should be noted in logbook every day, preferably during peak loading time of the day. (In the case of isolated/unattended buildings where it is not feasible to log daily, the period may be increased to weekly or fortnightly as feasible).
2. Inspection of electrical installations is intended primarily from fire safety considerations. Following points need to be observed as part of inspection, and corrective action as necessary should be taken immediately, including coordination with the client departments concerned, as may be required.

- a. Check that there is no sign of heating up, burning smell, discoloration or sparking at any of the boards (SDBs as well as main boards), and Rising Mains. These may occur due to overloading or loose terminations. Highly unbalanced loading may cause heavy neutral currents and consequent heating of neutral conductors and terminals.
 - b. No temporary wiring exists anywhere in the building.
 - c. There is no joint in cords connecting the WTAC units/ voltage regulators/office equipment like photocopier, PC etc.
 - d. No bare wiring exists over the flooring without mechanical protection by a metallic conduit / channel.
 - e. There is no misuse of socket outlets, such as connecting power load to light socket, connection of multiple loads to one socket, use of heaters in record room, library etc. In such cases of additional demands of outlets, these should be brought to the notice of the Engineer-in-charge early, after taking approval of the competent authority.
 - f. All DBs should be only of MCB type and all sockets for WTAC units should be of industrial type controlled by MCB.
 - g. The shafts/ spaces for electrical services are not misused, for storage or for dumping rubbish.
 - h. The spaces in front of DB's and sockets are free (without any storage of files/ papers etc.)
 - i. No additions/ alterations are done by the user departments to the electrical installations by themselves.
3. A record of loading upto DB level (in each phase in case of 3 phase DBs) should be maintained, after measurements using a clip on ammeter. Such measurement should be done, as far as possible during peak season (summer and winter), when the loads are likely to be the highest.
 4. While cleaning fittings and fans, the fixing/ suspending arrangements should also be checked and attended to as necessary. Care should be taken that the alignment is not disturbed.
 - a. In the case of ceiling fans, remove the blades, and wash the same with detergent, without causing any deformation of blade angle. Check the shackle and replace if damaged. Check that down rod is fully screwed up to the last thread on both ends and that threads are not loose. If so required, replace with new down rod of the same size, thickness and length of threading (not less than 20 mm). Check split pins and replace if any strain deformation or damage is observed. If any other system of suspension had been adopted, check the soundness of tighten as necessary. Fix fan blades tightly to the body. Operate the fan at different speeds; the run should be without wobbling/ noise.

PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE

1. Cleanliness is the essence of preventive maintenance. Keep areas clean.
2. Have schematic diagram for each installation handy.
3. No loose wiring.
4. No overloading.
5. Preventive maintenance of switchboards, DBs every six months
6. For multi-storied building go for fuse less switchgear like ACBs, MCCBs, and MCBs, as a precaution against fire on account of short circuit.
7. Proper manning/ supervision of installation.
8. Maintenance of logs records and history sheet of events and breakdowns. Ensure working of all measuring and indicating instruments.
9. Annual inspection to ensure system adequacy, safety, efficiency and take remedial measures.
10. Display important telephone numbers.
11. No short circuit to problem like patchy repairs.
12. Compound Lighting
 - a. 3 monthly cleaning of fittings. Weekly check of working of all fittings. This ensures a bright and safe premises during night.
13. For proper maintenance of electrical installations, the following items of work shall be carried out regularly as per periodicity stated below and a proper record of such work shall be maintained.
