

Due to the unprecedented number of Ph.D. students graduating in the 55th Convocation, it will not be possible to accommodate the accompanying guests of all the PhD students in the 1st session of Convocation ceremony (8.00 AM to 12 noon) to be held in Dogra Hall due to limited seating capacity. Therefore, the entry of the guests in Dogra Hall will be on FIRST-COME-FIRST-SERVE basis.

However, alternate arrangements have been made for the guests to accommodate them in a nearby different location at II-LT-2. Live telecast of Dogra Hall ceremony of 1st session will be available at that venue.

Further, it is to be noted that in the 2nd session of the ceremony (12.10 pm to 2 pm) when the degree will be conferred on the students, all the guests will be allowed in the Dogra Hall.
