1. Facilities, requirements and provisions for online teaching ↷

- Course coordinator will inform the mode of online (live or video recorded, and lecture notes) delivery of course content.
- Course content (lectures etc.) will be available on Impartus platform. The access will be through Moodle system with access through your Kerberos id.
- Some of the course content and doubt clearing may be live sessions.

2. Modification and communication of course evaluation policy ↷

- Due to change in conditions, the course evaluation policy may be suitably adjusted and communicated by course coordinator.
- The course evaluation policy will be communicated either through the Academics ERP system or the course email.
- Senate resolved provisions for course evaluation policy for the semester
 - Attendance in online classes or in on campus classes cannot be used as basis for grading or any other aspects related to course evaluation policy, in semesters which are partly or fully completed online.
 - The minimum pass requirement for a course done on credit basis ('D' grade) or on Audit basis ('NP' grade) is to be fixed at 30% marks.

3. Audit a course ↷

As a special provision for this semester, you may audit one compulsory (DC/ PC and Institute core including core project courses) course and two courses in electives category (including elective project courses). Audit withdrawal process will be on Academics ERP system and will be announced by the ERP team.

4. Start for part-evaluations/ assignment submission ↷

To provide students some time for preparation, in-semester evaluation should be scheduled on or after August 13, 2020. Assignments can be given earlier, but the due dates for assignments must be on or after August 13, 2020.

Separate Minor II dates are not provided in the semester schedule. Course instructor may conduct equivalent evaluation during teaching period or it could be also done along with Major exam/ evaluation.

5. Major examination before the calendar dates for Major exam/ evaluation with mutual consent of students ↩

In courses where the teaching is completed before August 15, Major examination may be scheduled with mutual consent of students and course instructor from August 17, 2020 to August 25, 2020. Otherwise, Major exam/ evaluation has to be conducted as per the schedule of Major exam/ evaluation.

6. Major exam/ evaluations related details ↩

Schedule will be provided by Chairman, Time-Table Committee for these exams/ evaluations. In view of the possibility of conducting these evaluations in a different way for the remotely located students, the schedule will include only the end time. The submission from students must not be before the end time given in the schedule and the exam/ evaluation can be started at any suitable time before the end time ensuring that it does not overlap with the previously scheduled slot. The mode and other details of the exam/ evaluation will be communicated by the course coordinator.

7. Pre-registration for the next semester ↩

Pre-registration for the next semester will be on the Academics ERP system. Detailed process will be announced before the start of the pre-registration.
