International Memorandum of Understanding between

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY
Clemson, South Carolina
United States of America

and

Indian Institute of Technology Delhi (IITD)
Delhi, India

Clemson University in Clemson, South Carolina and the Indian Institute of Technology Delhi (IITD) wishing to further relations between our two institutions in international education, research, service, and other related activities, do hereby commit to mutual and reciprocal cooperation to achieve our shared goals.

Areas of cooperation may include any program of study, research, and service offered by either institution, which is desirable and feasible for the development and strengthening of our cooperative relations. Development of an agreement concerning any specific program will be contingent on mutual consent, availability of funds, and approval of each institution. Such programs may include:

1. Academic programming such as study abroad, student exchange, research, internships, practical training, distance learning, continuing education, cooperative education and service learning.
2. Exchanges for research, training or teaching.
3. Collaborative research projects, workshops or conferences.
4. Exchanges of other institutional professionals or information.

Supplemental agreements governing all areas of cooperation under this International Memorandum of Understanding shall be negotiated and decided separately and shall come into effect upon the signature of the authorized institutional representative.

This MOU is a non-binding statement of the Parties’ mutual understanding of the proposed collaboration framework. This MOU does not create any legally enforceable rights or obligations with respect to any party to the MOU. It does not obligate any party to expend any funds or to enter into any supplemental agreement. It is intended to facilitate discussions regarding general areas of future cooperation.

This MOU may be amended only by written agreement of all parties. It has a term of three years, and can be renewed by written agreement of the parties. The MOU can be terminated by any party for any reason with 30 days written notice.
