Agreement on Cooperation between

the Indian Institutes of Technology

and

TU9 German Institutes of Technology
Indian Institutes of Technology

The Indian Institutes of Technology (IIT) and the TU9 Institutes of Technology in Germany, referred to here as "networks", are mutually interested in continuing their co-operation within the framework of activities under the auspices of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

For this purpose, both networks will continue to participate in the IIT-Master-Sandwich program for another 5 years (2013-2017) according to the rules laid down by the signatories, the Indian and the German government.

This includes the exchange of students:

a. The exchange students will remain enrolled at their home university. The students will also be enrolled at the receiving university.

b. Such exchange students will only pay tuition, if required, at their home institution.

c. The home university is responsible for the testing of the exchange students' foreign language skills.

d. DAAD will provide scholarships to the extent available.
